Criminal Justice/ Mental Health Integrated Case Management Program

Helping people rebuild their lives.

Mission

The mission of the Criminal Justice/Mental Health (CJ/MH) Integrated Case Management program is to increase access to appropriate mental health and related services. The goal of the program is to improve mental health and reduce criminal behavior and incarceration.

Who is Eligible?

- 18 years of age or older
- Resident of Jefferson or Gilpin County
- Diagnosis of severe and persistent mental illness or acute episode of mental illness
- Appropriate/safe to receive services in the community
- Non-violent offenders

Partners in the Collaboration

The CJ/MH team works very closely with various organizations who provide community services to offenders in the 1st Judicial District:

Law Enforcement

Allows for intervention at the point of initial police contact including CIT (Crisis Intervention Team) officers.

District Attorney's Office

The District Attorney's Adult Diversion program will include the integrated case management program as an alternative sentencing option for appropriate offenders.

Probation

Case Managers and Probation staff work together to ensure people with mental illness who are served by probation are referred to the program for evaluation.

Pre-Trial Services/Diversion

Pre-trial staff are in a position to identify previously unidentified mentally ill offenders and can refer individuals to the program before the offender goes to trial.

Jefferson County Jail

Jail personnel make referrals for individuals who are being released and need mental services to successfully transition to the community.

Public Defender's Office

Social Workers at the Public Defender's office work with the program to maximize services and also refer individuals who are not eligible for the Public Defender's program.
